The Blog and E-zine of the
Wisconsin District of the UPCI

A New WDN

A new format... We have moved from a black and white printed newsletter to a full-color e-zine (electronic magazine). The website/blog is updated as new information comes in and a digital version of the WDN newsletter will be published every other month (on-line only)

A new direction... Issues to include: A letter from the District Superintendent, upcoming activities, reports of past activities, spotlights on musicians, authors and pastors, testimonies and other news from around the great state of Wisconsin.
